

Senior Living Foundation of the American Foreign Service

The SENIOR LIVING FOUNDATION (SLF) was established to assist retired members of the American Foreign Service and their spouses who have become physically and/or mentally unable to cope with factors of life that they face during their later years. In many cases, they have barely enough financial resources to cover their normal living expenses. When something changes, as is always the case in aging, they find themselves in trouble and can turn to us for help.

We wish to thank those who have given in the past and those who continue to support the Foundation through annual giving.

Now, through your bequest, you are helping the Foundation meet the long-term needs of this special group of colleagues. The need continues to grow - and we will be here to "take care of our own."

SENIOR LIVING FOUNDATION MISSION

The mission of the Senior Living Foundation of the American Foreign Service is to provide support to retired Foreign Service personnel and their spouses (including surviving and divorced spouses) and, on the basis of need, to defray the cost of home health care services, senior housing, long term care insurance, or other senior services that contribute to the health and security of the retired Foreign Service family.

Bequests

Many individuals make charitable bequests through their will. Such bequests often allow donors to make gifts which might not have been possible before. The SENIOR LIVING FOUNDATION welcomes such gifts. In order to make an unrestricted bequest in your will, you may use this model language as a guide:

"I give to the Senior Living Foundation of the American Foreign Service, 1620 L Street, NW, Suite 800, Washington, DC 20036, the sum of $_____ (or _____% of my estate; or the property described herein) for its general purposes."

OR

"All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, I give to the Senior Living Foundation of the American Foreign Service, 1620 L Street, NW, Suite 800, Washington, DC 20036, for its general purposes."

Thank you for considering a bequest. We encourage you to discuss this with your attorney or financial planner.

*A time of service,
a time of need.*

Legacy Action Group

Thank you for your generous bequest.

The information that you provide will help the SENIOR LIVING FOUNDATION in its long-term planning to "take care of our own." Publicizing your gift encourages others, by means of example, to make similar gifts.
